Who We Are

About Us

The Norristown Chorale is a community chorus serving Norristown and the surrounding communities in Montgomery County, Pennsylvania since 1977. We are an SATB ensemble with singers from all walks of life. The Chorale's members find camaraderie, harmony and personal fulfillment in group singing. The Chorale aims to share the beauty of choral music with the community throughout its concert season.

Joining the Chorale

It's easier than you think!

We do not have a "formal" audition process. However, we do a simple voice assessment to be sure you are singing the correct part; and we will ask you to sing a familiar song or hymn such as, "My County 'Tis of Thee" or "Amazing Grace" to get an idea of your vocal range and quality.

New and returning singers are welcomed at the beginning of each season. (September and January)

Concerts

We hold between two and three public or private venue concerts in December and between three and four concerts in May.

Other Musical Opportunities

Our singers are routinely invited to participate in other concerts in December and during the summer months. Participation is optional.

Ross Boerner, Artistic Director

Mr. Boerner holds a BA in Music from Eastern University in St. Davids, PA and has studied choral conducting at Westminster Choir College. He has performed with several nationally known choral artists including Moses Hogan and Alice Parker.

Ross has performed in Carnegie Hall, Westminster Abbey, Arundel Cathedral, and the Notre Dame Cathedral. He has been a guest choral and orchestral conductor at local churches in the Philadelphia area for Christmas concerts and other special programs.

In addition to his work with the Chorale and being the owner of his own piano lesson studio, Mr. Boerner currently serves as the Director of Music at Good Shepherd Lutheran Church in King of Prussia, PA.
